County News.

Orange.

The public celebration of the Fourth in this city was a success. Owing to the usual delays incident to the formation of a parade, the Orange companies did not start before 10 o'clock. They marched from Cone street, Orange, down Main street to Prospect street, at Brick Church, thence up Prospect street to William street, to Arlington avenue, to the East Orange depot of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railway, where they arrived at 11 o'clock, just as the special train arrived from Hoboken, bringing the Ninth Regiment. The parade then resumed. In front were the Orange mounted troops, to the number of about thirty; then came the Ninth Regiment, preceded by Major's Fifth Regiment, Band, then followed by the Orange companies, 44, A. R. with Lancers, Post, Iron and Field Corps, Schenck's Band A. O. H. and other societies and drum corps. The procession was the largest daylight parade seen in Orange for many years, and presented a fine appearance as they marched up Main street to High street, Orange, where they counted marched to the military common, where refreshments were served. A sign ran coming up the members of the Ninth were taken by Company A. of Orange, to their armory, and entertained there. In the evening a handsome display of fireworks was exhibited from a lot on Park avenue, near the East Orange line.

During Saturday there were two serious cases of burning. A little girl, the child of a man in the employ of Mr. John Pettit, of Harrison street, was terribly injured by an explosion of fireworks, and a little girl belonging to Robert Berry of Norwood street, went too near a fire, and her clothes, catching fire, was terribly burned. She died in the evening.

A slight fire in a chimney of a house on the railroad, near Freeman street, owned by Frederick Berg and occupied by a man named Garry, called out the valley fire department, Thursday morning, but was extinguished without their aid being necessary. But very little damage was done.

At the new Park Rink, last evening, a handsome gold medal for a one mile race was won by Jack Tierney on a foal.

SOUTH ORANGE.

Mr. D. C. Allen, who is over sixty years old, while trimming a cherry tree last week, fell from a limb to the ground, a distance of about eighteen feet. It is feared that he is internally hurt.

The Town Committee gives notice that any person detected in defacing the guide-boards bearing the names of the streets or avenues of this township is liable to severe punishment. The committee has refused to pay the bills for services of special constables on the mountain to protect the residents from violence at the hands of roughs from Newark, for two Sundays at $5 per Sunday. The committee considered the charge exorbitant and decided that half of that amount would be fair compensation, and that they would pay no more. The sum of $10,174.80 is to be taxed on the township, for drainage in South Orange township, on the east branch of the Rahway river, under an act of March 21, 1881 (chapter 158).

The old homestead of the late Rufus Freeman, on Ridgewood road, opposite the Mountain House, took fire from a defective flue, on Saturday morning, and together with an adjoining barn, was totally destroyed. It has been owned for several years by John I. Lord.

EAST ORANGE.

In East Orange, added to the attraction of the procession on Saturday morning, was the excitement of a real fire. A large house on Arlington place, adjoining Doane's new brick block, has been for several years used as a tenement, and contained a number of families. Fire communicated itself in some way from a wood fire in a stove on the second story to the building, and gained such headway in a few moments that in spite of the efforts of the East Orange fire department, the entire roof and upper story were burned out and holes burned through the floor in several places, through which water reached the furniture, etc., in the room below and did much damage. The loss on the building, which will reach about $1,000, is covered by insurance, but the loss to the tenants on household goods is uninsured.

CEDAR GROVE.

The public school closed on Tuesday with appropriate exercises. During the vacation it is expected considerable alterations will be made to the building. The teachers and scholars were invited to a lawn party on Wednesday by Miss Grace Heller. Nearly all were present and enjoyed various games as well as the good things provided by Mrs. Heller.

MONTCLAIR.

One of the best concerts in Montclair was given Thursday evening in the Presbyterian Church by the Duxey Quartette, Henry S. Brown, Carl Feringer, and others. The room was crowded. The proceeds are for the piano fund for the Chapel Sunday School.

BROOKDALE ITEMS.

Our Citizens at the north end of the town are much pleased with the recent water privileges that they have enjoyed. No thanks to the Bloomfield water works either.

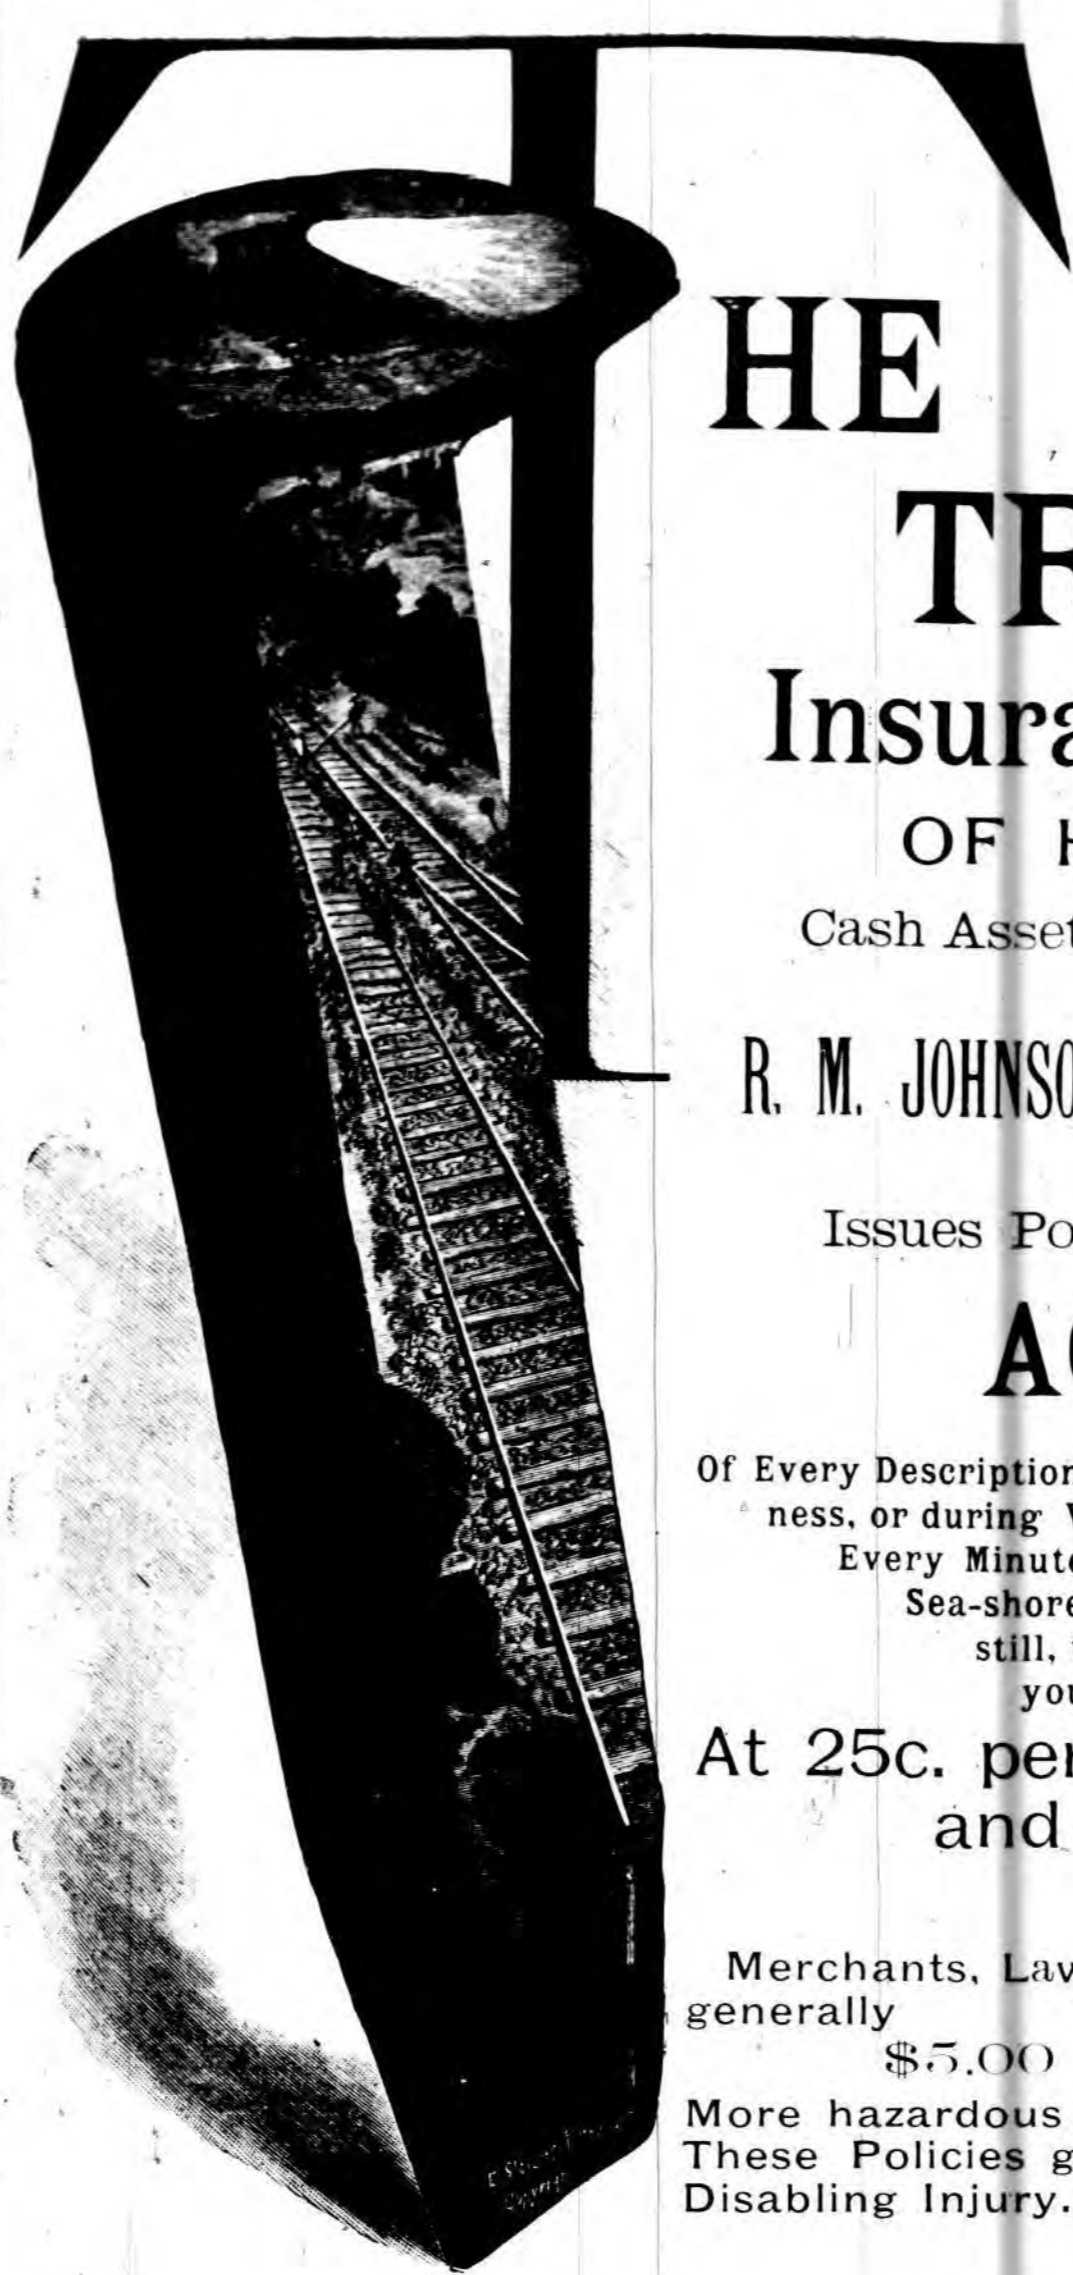

Courtland Van Winkle, of Brookdale, while loading a revolver on the afternoon of July 1th, accidentally discharged the weapon and the ball lodged in his left hand. Dr. Bailey succeeded in extracting the ball, and he is now doing well. This is one of the accidents that might have been much worse.

Joseph Meles of the same neighborhood, was badly burnt about the eye by a fire cracker and he is now better, but has carried his eye in a sling since that touching display of fireworks.

Ada Estill, daughter of Mr. John Estill of Brookdale, a young lady of 15 years died on the morning of July 3d. She was well known in Watessing where she had recently lived, and has been a long while a patient sufferer from consumption until called away.

Margie Moore daughter of Michel Moore died on July 3d of consumption. She has been sick for several years. Her father is well known as the sexton of the Brookdale Reform Church.

Butler was right, there's no such word as fail. It is modified into assign ment.
